Creating Pathways

for North Dakotans

We are a statewide non-profit organization that offers resources to educate parents and families, youth and young adults, professionals, and the community, focusing on individuals birth-26 with learning differences or challenges.

We help North Dakotans to:

- ◆ Understand rights in education
- ◆ Building bridges between families and schools
- ◆ Understand Individualized Education Program (IEP), Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), or 504 Plan components
- ◆ Find information on available statewide support services
- ◆ Prepare youth and young adults for important life transitions
- ◆ Create parent/child connections at home
- ◆ Sharing knowledge with other organizations
- ◆ Understand a child's disability

We offer:

- ◆ Confidential guidance from trained advisors
- ◆ Free resources on a wide variety of topics
- ◆ Lending library of books and DVDs
- ◆ Workshops and webinars to provide education on complex issues
- ◆ An electronic newsletter containing news and information for North Dakota families and professionals
- ◆ Website featuring online resources, links to statewide services, and news relevant to North Dakota
